Fabrizio is a partner in the firm.

Before becoming a partner of the Firm and since practicing law, Fabrizio has carried out intense activity both in litigation and arbitration, particularly in corporate, banking and bankruptcy matters, and in the field of extraordinary transactions, starting with securitizations and assisting real estate asset management companies.

Remaining constantly active over time both in litigation and extraordinary transactions, he has gained extensive and in-depth experience in the fields of corporate law, finance operations and advising investment funds, M&A and bond issuance, crisis and insolvency management as well as real estate.

He holds positions on boards of directors and carries out assignments for the Specialized Section of the Court of Milan.

Fabrizio graduated in 2005 with a degree in commercial law from the University of Milan with a thesis on share capital transactions as a defensive technique in hostile takeover bids.

He is a member of the Milan Bar Association since 2009.
