Fabrizio is an equity partner.

Since the beginning of his career, he has been intensely involved in litigation and arbitration, particularly in the areas of corporate, banking and bankruptcy law, as well as in the field of extraordinary transactions, starting with securitisation and assistance to real estate asset management companies.

Remaining constantly active in both litigation and extraordinary transactions, he has gained extensive and in-depth experience in the areas of corporate law, finance transactions and investment fund consulting, M&A and bond issuance, crisis and insolvency management, as well as in the real estate sector.

He has also gained extensive experience in managing family and succession law, with reference to all aspects of civil and commercial law, including litigation, from planning to conflict situations, with a particular focus on generational transition.

Fabrizio graduated in commercial law from the University of Milan in 2005 with a thesis on share capital transactions as a defensive technique in the event of a hostile takeover bid.

He holds positions on boards of directors and carries out assignments for the Specialised Business Section and the Bankruptcy Section of the Court of Milan.

He has been a member of the Milan Bar Association since 2009 and is qualified to practise before the High Courts.
